Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

FY2018 ended with an $103K deficit, which was directly related to a four-month gap in executive leadership, staff turnover, and lower than expected grant and event revenue. A new Executive Director was hired in June 2018, and CancerLINC immediately implemented a plan to shift its fundraising strategy to be more diverse and sustainable. This plan focused on increasing support from individuals, corporations and foundations with less reliance on event revenue. Considering the time necessary to make this revenue transition, the FY2019 budget was reduced by one full-time staff position and discretionary expenses were cut to help compensate for a necessary reduction in two traditional fundraising events. Unfortunately, FY2019 ended with an $89K deficit. CancerLINC has since made encouraging progress in FY2020 to stabilize and expand its revenue sources and expects to end the year in a neutral or positive revenue status.
