Our Executive Director, Julianne Duvall and Advancement Officer for Events and Communications, Jordan Dey, recently had the incredible opportunity to sit down with Fox Richmond to talk about all things CancerLINC! During the segment, we shared our mission of providing legal, financial, and community support to cancer patients and their families. CancerLINC understands that everyone has a cancer story and believes no one should face cancer alone.

We also highlighted our highly anticipated Pack Your Bags - Hawaii, A CancerLINC Luau event, giving viewers a sneak peek at some of the amazing auction items up for grabs this year. Stay tuned for our segment airing soon, and don't forget to join us on April 17th at the Virginia Museum of History and Culture for an unforgettable evening!

CancerLINC Attends the Triage Cancer Conference

This month, two of our Client Services staff members attended the Triage Cancer Conference to gain valuable insights on navigating medical bills and accessing financial assistance. The financial burden of healthcare is a growing crisis:

- 50% of adults can't cover an unexpected $500 healthcare bill.
- 63% of cancer patients cut back on essentials like food and clothing due to treatment costs.
- 4 in 10 individuals have medical debt, with women more likely to be affected.

CancerLINC is prepared to guide patients through financial challenges and connect them to resources to ease the burden of a cancer diagnosis.
