Stronger Together: A Spotlight on CancerLINC's Community

Getting Plans in Place for CancerLINC Patients

Attorney Paul Ranney has volunteered with CancerLINC for over a decade, helping more than 100 cancer patients with essential legal documents like wills and advance directives. In addition to serving clients, he has held leadership roles on CancerLINC's Board and supports its staff with legal expertise. Paul encourages others to volunteer, noting the lasting impact they can have on families facing cancer.

Virginia Breast Cancer Foundation

Breast cancer touches the lives of thousands of Virginians each year, not only through the challenges of diagnosis and treatment but also through the emotional, financial, and social burdens that come with it. The Virginia Breast Cancer Foundation (VBCF) was created to ensure no one faces this journey alone. Since 1991, VBCF has been a trusted voice and resource, advocating for better care, providing vital education, and offering support programs that empower individuals and families across the Commonwealth.

Spotlight on Survivorship & Financial Planning

Thank you to CancerLINC Volunteer Taylor Walter Jessee for leading an insightful discussion on survivorship at Bon Secours. CancerLINC is also proud to be partnering with the Foundation for Financial Planning and the Angel Foundation to provide a continuing education opportunity for Certified Financial Planners nationwide. Taylor Jessee of Impact Financial, together with Program Manager Patricia Green, have been working with colleagues on a presentation centered around the financial toxicity of cancer and how pro bono financial planning can help combat it. This virtual webinar for Certified Financial Planners will be held on Tuesday, November 4th.

CancerLINC Community Outreach and Events

CancerLINC at the CACV Conference

Michael Wigginton (Client Services Coordinator), Julianne Duvall (Executive Director), and Patricia Green (Program Manager) representing CancerLINC at Day 1 of the CACV Conference.

Program Manager Patricia Green speaking in the Survivorship: How To Know Your Rights panel discussion

This month, CancerLINC was proud to participate in the Cancer Action Coalition of Virginia (CACV) Conference alongside some of our incredible volunteers. Caine Caverly, Esq. joined CancerLINC Program Manager Patricia Green on a panel discussion about survivorship. It was a wonderful opportunity to share expertise, connect with partners across the state, and highlight CancerLINC's role in supporting patients and families. We value our membership in CACV and all the work that the coalition does on behalf of patients with cancer.

Where We've Been and Where We're Going

Our Laughter in the Rain

CancerLINC participated in Our Laughter in the Rain on September 14. Board Member Mary Riley and Advancement Officer Jordan Dey had the joy of connecting with community members at this inspiring event, which celebrated laughter, joy, and resilience. We're grateful to the organizers for welcoming us and giving us the opportunity to share how CancerLINC provides free legal, financial, and community support to local families facing cancer.

Latinos In Virginia

CancerLINC loves supporting the health fairs put on by Latinos in Virginia. CancerLINC's Bilingual Client Services Associate Ebony Ramos attended. It is always an invaluable experience to connect directly with members of the Spanish-speaking community and share CancerLINC's mission. We are grateful to Latinos in Virginia for their partnership and for opening the door for meaningful outreach.

Cancer Wellness Expo with

The Chickahominy Baptist Association

The Chickahominy Baptist Association, in partnership with VCU Massey Comprehensive Cancer Center, hosted a Health & Wellness Expo on Saturday, September 27 centered around the theme “Navigating Cancer Together.” The event featured speakers, a panel discussion, free cancer screenings, and community resource information for participants. Program Manager Patricia Green represented CancerLINC at the event.

 3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

 Brambly Park

CancerLINC's Advocate Board—a dynamic group of young professionals dedicated to advancing our mission—is hosting its very first social event, and you're invited!

This casual afternoon gathering is open to everyone and offers the perfect chance to learn more about CancerLINC, connect with the Advocate Board, and enjoy good company in a beautiful setting. There will be games and prizes to add to the fun, making it an even better way to spend a fall afternoon. Whether you're curious about our mission, looking to meet like-minded community members, or just want a relaxed outing, this event is for you.

Come see what CancerLINC is all about—while sipping, mingling, and supporting a cause that brings hope, peace of mind, and support to cancer patients and families across Central Virginia.

CancerLINC at the Model Citizen Awards October 10!

CancerLINC will have a table at the upcoming Model Citizen Award: Faith, Fashion, Music, Prizes, Food & Purpose event on October 10 at the Petersburg Train Station.

This special event is organized by one of CancerLINC's very own clients Cheryl Worrell Brown, who also inspired us as the featured speaker at our Pack Your Bags event earlier this year. We're honored to continue supporting her journey and to join in celebrating faith, creativity, and community purpose. You can purchase tickets to attend.

Stop by our table to learn more about how CancerLINC provides free legal, financial, and community resources to local cancer patients and their families.

It will be an evening filled with fashion, live music, food, prizes—and a powerful reminder of what people helping people can accomplish.

News That Impacts Cancer Patients

Podcast Spotlight: Health + Legal Help = Peace of Mind

We're excited to share a new VCU Health podcast episode featuring Alison Held, Esq., Director of the Medical Legal Partnership at VCU Health. Alison, a former CancerLINC board member and volunteer, explores how access to legal services can make a real difference in a person's health journey—removing stress, creating stability, and giving families peace of mind.

We're proud to be a partner of VCU Health Massey Comprehensive Cancer Center. Our community connection is spotlighted in this important conversation. Tune in to the episode and hear why legal advocacy is an essential part of the health care puzzle.

CancerLINC Joins the 2025 CVC!

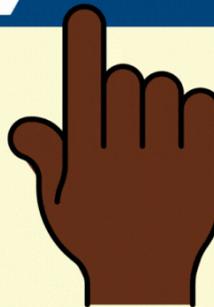

We're excited to share that CancerLINC is part of the 2025 Commonwealth of Virginia Campaign (CVC), the workplace giving program for state employees. The CVC makes it easy to give back through Payroll Deduction, Credit Card, or Direct Giving. When you choose CancerLINC, your support helps ensure that cancer patients and their families in Central Virginia have access to free legal, financial, and community resources during their cancer journey.

Click Here to Learn more about giving through the CVC!

From October 1–December 31, you can find CancerLINC in the CVC database using code 201704. Your gift through CVC makes a difference!
